PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, alcohol, tobacco and drug abuse costs California billions of dollars every year and impedes the ability of Californians to lead healthy, productive lives; and

WHEREAS, the California Department of Healthcare Services, Alcohol and Drug Programs, The Behavioral Health Department, Department of Education, Local Law Enforcement and other Community Based Organizations are embracing the California Red Ribbon Celebration to highlight and support substance abuse prevention; and

WHEREAS, Red Ribbon Week provides a forum for parents and children to join together with Behavioral Health and other community organizations to demonstrate their commitment to leading a healthy lifestyle, free of alcohol and other drugs; and

WHEREAS, this year, the 27th Annual Red Ribbon Week will be observed nationwide with a variety of activities designed to promote positive peer pressure, healthy decision-making and a lifestyle free of substance abuse among our nation's young people;

NOW, THEREFORE, the San Benito County Board of Supervisors does hereby proclaim October 23, 2016 through October 31, 2016 as Red Ribbon Week in San Benito.
