A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF SAN BENITO COUNTY IN REGARDS TO NOTICE AND RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO VACATE FOUR CORNERS DRIVE AND DUNNVILLE WAY IN UNINCORPORATED SAN BENITO COUNTY

WHEREAS, representatives of the CSA #50 homeowners have requested that the Board of Supervisors consider vacating County Roads Dunnville Way and Four Corners Drive, inside and leading to the Dunnville Estates subdivision.

NOW THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HEREBY RESOLVES AND DECLARES that:

1. It intends to vacate the hereinafter described County Roads, subject to the reservation of specified easements and rights;
2. Vacation proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to Division 9, Part 3, Chapter 3 of the Streets and Highways Code, State of California (Sections 8320 through 8325).
3. The County roads intended to be vacated are described as follows: all of Dunnville Way located in Dunnville Estates, and Four Corners Drive from San Felipe Road, eastward to and throughout Dunnville Estates, Tract No. 278, filed for record August 7, 1998, in Book 12 of Maps at page 46, Document No. 9810184 and by Certificate of Correction recorded August 13, 1998, under Document No. 9810355, and by Certificate of Correction recorded January 22, 1999, Document No. 9900861.
4. A map showing the location of the above described County roads is on file in the Office of the Resource Management Agency, 2301 Technology Parkway, Hollister, CA 95023, and may be received by contacting Janet Slibsager, jslibsager@cosb.us, and is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
5. A hearing on this proposed vacation will be held on June 2, 2020, at 9:00 a.m., in the Board Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, 481 Fourth St., Hollister CA 95023. If the shelter in place order has been lifted, members of the public may attend in person. If the shelter in place order has not been lifted, any person may attend and participate by phone or through zoom, with call-in information being provided to the public no later than 72 hours prior to the meeting.
